

DEMOCRACY IN CRISIS?

Politics, Governance and Policy

YANNIS PAPADOPOULOS

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction	1
Something happened to democracy	1
Trying to move beyond 'parochial' views of changes	6
Outline of the book: the argument in brief	9
1 Party Democracy Challenged	20
The cartel strategy and its limits	21
The challenge to parties of an unfriendly environment	29
Another partisan response to challenges: the presidentialization of politics	37
The uncoupling between politics and policy-making: spiral effects and paradoxes	43
2 Mediatization and Audience Democracy	47
The impact of media commercialization on politics: complex and multifaceted	49
Can the media see behind front-stage?	64
New media: a change of logic?	68
The limits of audience democracy	77
3 Internationalisation, Europeanization, and Multilevel Governance	79
Internationalization of governance: limits to inclusiveness and accountability	82
Global civil society: the solution?	86
The democratic deficit of private governance: invisible and by stealth	94
Europeanization and multilevel governance	102
Overall assessment and prospects	113
4 Collaborative Governance and Cooperative Policy-Making	117
A move from 'government' to 'governance'?	119

Why collaborative governance?	123
Collaborative governance, representation, and accountability	130
More horizontal governance, less democracy?	137
5 Empowering the Citizen or the Customer?	140
Deliberative and participatory experiments: do they matter?	141
New Public Management and subsequent reform layers: who are the winners?	156
The 'accountability agenda': failed promises, limited relevance?	169
6 Limits To Majority Rule: Agencification and Judicialization	171
Agencification by contagion	175
More accountability, less democracy?	183
Judicialization: part of juridification, sustained through internationalization	191
Judges as account-holders and as legislators: a controversial role	203
Gains or losses for the quality of democracy?	210
7 The Winter of Democracy?	214
Challenges to democracy: their logics and implications	214
The marginalization of parliamentary institutions	222
The technocratization of policy-making	227
The advent of advocacy democracy	230
The divorce between front- and back-stage: a reinforcement loop	234
After the winter?	240
Bibliography	249
Index	281