

the ANTHROPOLOGY of
GLOBAL PENTECOSTALISM
and EVANGELICALISM

EDITED BY Simon Coleman AND Rosalind I. J. Hackett

WITH AN AFTERWORD BY Joel Robbins

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: A New Field? Simon Coleman and Rosalind I. J. Hackett	1
SECTION 1. MORALIZING THE WORLD
1. Personhood: Sin, Sociality, and the Unbuffered Self in US Evangelicalism Omri Elisha	41
2. Circulations: Evangelical and Pentecostal Christianity in Nineteenth-Century Singapore and Penang Jean DeBernardi	57
3. Orientations: Moral Geographies in Transnational Ghanaian Pentecostal Networks Kristine Krause	75
SECTION 2. LANGUAGE AND EMBODIMENT
4. Affect: Intensities and Energies in the Charismatic Language, Embodiment, and Genre of a North American Movement Jon Bialecki	95
5. Feminine Habitus: Rhetoric and Rituals of Conversion and Commitment among Contemporary South Korean Evangelical Women Kelly H. Chong	109
6. Mobility: A Global Geography of the Spirit among Catholic Charismatic Communities Thomas J. Csordas	129

SECTION 3. TRANSMISSION AND MEDIATION

7. Mediating Money: Materiality and Spiritual Warfare in Tanzanian Charismatic Christianity 147
Martin Lindhardt
8. Mediating Culture: Charisma, Fame, and Sincerity in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil 161
Martijn Oosterbaan
9. Mediating Miracle Truth: Permanent Struggle and Fragile Conviction in Kyrgyzstan 177
Mathijs Pelkmans

SECTION 4. THE STATE AND BEYOND: NEW RELATIONS, NEW TENSIONS

10. Politics of Sovereignty: Evangelical and Pentecostal
Christianity and Politics in Angola 197
Ruy Llera Blanes
11. Politics of Prayer: Christianity and the Decriminalization of Cocaine in Guatemala 214
Kevin Lewis O'Neill
12. Politics of Tradition: Charismatic Globalization, Morality, and Culture in Polynesian Protestantism 228
Yannick Fer
- Afterword: The Anthropology of Global Pentecostalism
and Evangelicalism 243
Joel Robbins
- About the Contributors* 253
- Index* 257