

AN EDITED BOOK

MODERATION: AN ISLAMIC APPROACH IN THE CONTEMPORARY WORLD

SHEKH MOHAMMAD ALTAFUR RAHMAN
SRAWUT AREE

Table of Contents

Forwarding

Preface

Part One: Summary of the International Conference

1. Moderation-anIslamic Approach to Face the Global Transitionon ASEAN–Thailand 9
Shekh Mohammad Altafur Rahman, Srawut Aree, and Mohammad Faheem
2. Islamic Moderation: its Relevancy and Practicality 26
Retraced from the Speech of Dr. Surin Pitswan

Part Two: Concepts of Islamic Moderation

3. The Movement of Moderates As a Platform Toward Regional & Global Peaceful Coexistence 35
Nasharudin Mat Isa
4. Understanding the Dimensions of Wasatiyyah and Its' Relationship with the People of Different Faiths 48
Abdullah Numsuk

Part Three: Local Incorporation of Moderation in Thailand

5. Interfaith Dialogue in Religious Pluralistic Society of Southeast Asia: A Case Study of Thailand 58
Jaran Maluleem
6. Establishment of Halal Science: A Success Example of Muslim Moderation in Thai Society 70
Srawut Aree

Part Four: Moderation an InclusiveApproach

7. Examining the Potentials of Moderation in Socially Responsive Design for Sustainable Change 79
Shekh M. A. Rahman, and Istvan Rado
8. Moderation in the Multicultural ASEAN: A Way Forward Approach 90
Mohammad Faheem

Part Five: Triumph of Islamic Moderation

9. Positioning Islamic Moderation Against Image Crisis 102
Shekh Mohammad Altafur Rahman

10. Critique of Charles Kimball’s Book “When Religion Becomes Evil: Reform, Islam and Non-Violence Movement”	112
Mohammad Abdus Sabur
Part Six: Survey
11. Perceptions on “Islamic Moderation” among the Students of Thammasat University, Thailand	123
Manoch Aree, Nur-E-Jannat Ameer, and Ashma Rahman
12. Brief Profiles of the Contributors	132