

Keith A. Roberts ▪ David Yamane

RELIGION

in Sociological Perspective

▪ SEVENTH EDITION ▪

Contents

Preface	xi
About the Authors	xv

PART I: INTRODUCTION TO THE SOCIOLOGY OF RELIGION 1

1 What Do We Mean by the Term Religion? 3

Substantive Definitions	4	Spiritual but Not Religious?	17
Functional Definitions	7	The Concept of Religion as Employed in This Text	19
A Symbolic Definition	9	A Final Word About Definitions	20
Invisible Religion	12	Summary and Looking Forward	22
Lived Religion	15

2 Historical Development of the Sociology of Religion 23

The Classical Era	25	Neosecularization Theory	36
The Secularization Paradigm	27	Future Prospects	41
New Religious Developments	30	Summary and Looking Forward	43
New Paradigms	32

3 A Social Scientific Approach to Studying Religion 45

The Sociological Approach to Studying Religion	47	Content Analysis	62
Survey Research and Statistical Analysis	49	Historical–Comparative Analysis	64
Interviewing	54	Experimentation	65
Participant Observation	58	Triangulation	67
		Summary and Looking Forward	68

PART II: RELIGION IN THE LIVES OF INDIVIDUALS 69

4 Becoming and Being Religious 71

Religious Socialization and the Intergenerational Transmission of Religion	72	Mature Adulthood	82
Social Learning Theory	73	Later Life	83
Quality	74	Being Religious	84
Unity	74	Belonging	84
Stability	75	Believing	88
Channeling Through Peers and Schools	77	Behaving	91
Religion Over the Life Course	79	Becoming	93
Adolescence	79	Religious "Nones"	96
Emerging Adulthood	81	Summary and Looking Forward	100

5 Conversion, Switching, and Apostasy 103

Conversion, Brainwashing, and the New Religious Movements	104	Critique and Evolution of Lofland's Process Model	111
Process Models of Conversion	107	Religious Choices and Commitments:
Predisposing Conditions	108	A Rational Choice Model	112
Tension	108	A Supply-Side Model of Religious Choice	113
Religious Problem-Solving Perspective	108	Critique of Rational Choice Theory	116
Religious Seekership	109	Religious Switching	118
Situational Contingencies	110	Apostasy	123
Turning Point in Life	110	Summary and Looking Forward	128
Close Intragroup Affective Bonds	110
Weakening of Extra-Group Affective Bonds	110
Intensive Interaction	111

PART III: ORGANIZING RELIGION 129

6 Churches, Sects, Denominations, and "Cults" 131

Charisma and the Charismatic Leader	132	Classifying Religious Organizations	137
The Routinization of Charisma	133	The Church-Sect Typology	138

Denominationalism and the Denominational Society	142	Beyond Denominations?	147
Theology and Social Processes in the Proliferation of Denominations	144	Transdenominational Evangelicalism	147
Race	144	Nondenominationalism	149
Immigration	145	New Religious Movements, a.k.a. "Cults"	150
Innovation	146	Summary and Looking Forward	156

7 Congregationalism and Congregations 159

Denominations and De Facto Congregationalism	160	"New Paradigm" and "Seeker" Churches	177
Congregational Demography	164	Targeting Markets	178
What Do Congregations Do?	166	Creating an Appealing "Product"	181
Megachurches	170	Pragmatism About Methods and an Uncompromising Message	182
Multi-Site and Networked Religious Organizations	174	Summary and Looking Forward	187

PART IV: RELIGION, SOCIAL DIFFERENCE, AND INEQUALITY 189

8 Religion, Economics, and Social Class 191

Religious Ethics and Economic Action	192	Explaining the Connection Between Religion and Social Stratification	213
The Prosperity Gospel and Modern Capitalism	198	Education	213
Religion and Work	202	Family Formation Processes	215
Religion and Social Class Stratification	206	Networks	217
Religion and Social Stratification Outcomes	207	Summary and Looking Forward	218

9 Religion and Race 219

Religion and Racial/Ethnic Prejudice	220	Explaining Congregational Racial Segregation	235
The Racialization of Religious Groups	222	Race/Ethnicity and Religious Affiliation	238
Religion in the African American Community	227	Summary and Looking Forward	241
Racial Segregation in Congregations	232

10

Religion and Gender

243

Religion as a Gendered Social Institution	244	Gender Beyond Women	259
Gendered Religious Organizational Structures	248	Gender Beyond Male and Female	261
Gendered Patterns of Religiosity	252	Summary and Looking Forward	265
Negotiating Gender in Religious Communities	256

11

Religion and Sexualities

267

Religion, Heteronormativity, and Homonegativity	271	Congregational Responses to Sexual Diversity	282
Religious Divisions Over Same-Sex Marriage	277	LGBTQIA+ Religious Identities and Practices	286
LGBTQIA+ Clergy Controversies	280	Summary and Looking Forward	290

PART V: SOCIAL CHANGE AND RELIGION

291

12

Religion Outside the (God) Box

293

Religion and the "Old" Media	294	Online Religion: Practicing Faith on the Web	305
Print Publishing	294
Radio	295	Religion and Sport	309
Televangelism	297	Muscular Christianity, the YMCA, and Evangelical Sports Ministries	312
"Old" Media Beyond the Borders of the United States	299	Individual Level Religiosity and Sport	316
Religion and the "New Media"	300	Other Manifestations of Religion Outside Traditional God Boxes	317
Religion Online: Producing and Accessing Information	302	Summary and Looking Forward	323

13

Religion, Social Stability, and Social Conflict

325

Religion Functions to Provide Meaning and Belonging	326	Religion and Social Conflict	337
Religion and Legitimation of the Social Order	329	Religion: Opiate or Stimulant?	340
Civil Religion in America	330	Summary and Looking Forward	344
Toward a Global Civil Religion?	336

14

Globalization and Religion

347

Globalization of Religion	348	Religion in Global Affairs	368
The Impact of Globalization on Religion	350	Nationalism and Violence	368
Transnational Religious Connections	359	Humanitarianism and Peace	370
Glocalization of Religions	364	Summary and Looking Forward	373

Bibliography	375
Name Index	415
Subject Index	425