

RUSSIAN POPULISM

A HISTORY CHRISTOPHER ELY

THE BLOOMSBURY HISTORY OF MODERN RUSSIA SERIES

BLOOMSBURY

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Preface	viii
1 Introduction: Toward a Definition of Russian Populism	1
2 Origins	13
The Narod	14
Discovering the Russian People	16
Russia as a National Community?	23
The Slavophile Contribution	27
The Populist Slavophile: Konstantin Aksakov	34
3 Foundations	41
The Ideological Foundation: Alexander Herzen and Russian Socialism	42
Herzen's Path to a Better Future	47
Why Socialism?	51
The Rebel: Mikhail Bakunin	53
Populist History: Afanasy Shchapov	56
Fashioning the Classless Identity: Pavel Iakushkin	60
The Paradoxical Populist: Nikolai Chernyshevsky	63
A Populist Call to Arms: "To the Young Generation"	66
4 Populism in Theory	71
Populism Full-Blown	72
The Call to Serve	75
The Coming Revolution	79
The Dawn of a New World	83
An Apolitical Movement	88
The Contradictions of Russian Populism	91
5 Populism in Action	99
The First Public Protests	100
Unsuccessful Conspiracies	103
Bridging the Gap	106
Going Underground	111
Terrorism	116

Contents

6	Populist Art	127
	Russian Art in the Nineteenth Century	128
	Literature and the People	131
	Fyodor Dostoevsky	137
	Leo Tolstoy	142
	The Visual Arts	148
	The Mighty Handful and Modest Mussorgsky	154
7	Regrets and Revisions	159
	The Populist Dilemma	160
	The Engelgardt Experiment	163
	Uspensky and Zlatovratsky	167
	New Directions	174
	Legal Populism	178
	Disappointed Dreams	182
8	Neo-Populism	187
	The "New" in Neo-Populism	188
	Neo-Populists, Workers, and Peasants	192
	Socialist Revolutionary Ideology	196
	The Combat Organization	201
	The SRs in a Time of Revolution	204
	Conclusion	215
	Glossary	221
	Notes	223
	Selected Further Reading	237
	Bibliography	241
	Index	251